The new program will launch in September and allow people to adopt animals from shelters as they do their local veterinarian. The social media platform has received a $1 million grant from the Humane Society of the United States and will be the first nationwide initiative to connect people, pets, and places to find shelter pets in need of adoption. Adopt an Animal is a partnership among shelters nationwide, veterinarians, pet retailers and pet-themed organizations. "Our vision is to create a nationwide network of all shelters, veterinarians, pet-focused retailers and the rest of the animal welfare community working together to make sure that every shelter pet has an adoption opportunity," said Jan Murphy, the Humane Society of the United States director of pet adoption. "Our Adopt an Animal program is the first of its kind in the United States and we hope that the support we've received will make it the f678ea9f9e
